Francis Collins Provides Letter of Support for C3PO!

Updates....

The FDA's Emergency Use Authorization (EUA) of convalescent plasma is for in-patients only. We don't expect this authorization to adversely affect the study.

Rapid COVID-19 Testing The Abbott ID NOW Instruments and Reagents are available for shipping to sites at this time. Please consider this system to improve rapid COVID-19 testing capabilities at your site!

Enrolling Sites Please enter a WebDCU Screen Failure for all adult patients with a new diagnosis of COVID-19 disease, who are evaluated in the ED and are discharged home, but not enrolled. This information is necessary for planning during this early stage.

New Table

- When an Abbott ID instrument and/or COVID-19 Test Kit box is received, confirm receipt by clicking on Study Material Tracking > Study Supply Receiving > click appropriate record > Edit Record > Confirm receipt on Q09.
- Lab kits should only be 'Removed' from inventory when the kit is damaged or in poor condition; NOT when the lab kit is used for a subject.

Stanford REDCap

Remember to have the subject register for the central caller follow-up database BEFORE they leave the Emergency Department.

Explain to your subjects the importance of responding to emails and phone calls from a 650 area code!
